Biography

Angelia has been a program officer for the Michigan Community Service Commission since 1996. The MCSC is a state agency that seeks to build a culture of service by providing vision and resources to strengthen communities through volunteerism. In that time she has worked with out of school time programs, volunteer centers and K-12 schools to engage youth and adults in meaningful service while building sustainable programs. Prior to her work with the MCSC, Ms. Salas served as the Program Director for a Lansing-based nonprofit where she managed the development and implementation of service-learning efforts and immigration related programming. Angelia has a B.A. in International Relations from Michigan State University and has completed graduate course work toward her Masters of Public Administration at Western Michigan University. Ms. Salas resides in East Lansing with her husband and three children.
