

SLYPN Regional Lead – Southern Region
Rebecca Flood

Current Position and Organization

Coordinator of the Southern Region Peer Mentor Network, the Service-Learning Exchange

Biography

Rebecca Flood is the Coordinator of the Southern Region Peer Mentor Network for the Service-Learning Exchange. She has worked in the management of service-learning projects and grants related to intergenerational service-learning, disaster preparedness, response and community safety, and environmental issues for 14 years. She has written and co-written many service-learning resources, book reviews, and journal articles. A nationally recognized trainer, Rebecca also teaches a master's level course in service-learning at The Citadel.

Contact Information

Rebecca Flood

Coordinator of the Southern Region Peer Mentor Network

The Service-Learning Exchange

rflood@bellsouth.net